

House Committees to Hold Three Border Security Hearings This Week

Three House committees are set to hold hearings this week to more closely examine the issue of border security. Each committee will examine the Reid-Kennedy bill and some of its disturbing provisions that undermine efforts to protect our borders.

This week's hearing schedule:

Tuesday, July 18 - 10:00AM, 2141 Rayburn

Judiciary Committee – Subcommittee on Immigration, Border Security, and Claims

- Title: "Should We Embrace the Senate's Grant of Amnesty to Millions of Illegal Aliens and Repeat the Mistakes of the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986?"

Wednesday, July 19 - 10:30 AM, 2175 Rayburn

Education and Workforce Committee – Full Committee

- Title: "Guest Worker Programs: Impact on American Workforce and U.S. Immigration Policy."

Thursday, July 20 - 2:00 PM, 2118 Rayburn

Committee on Homeland Security – Subcommittee on Economic Security, Infrastructure Protection, and Cybersecurity

- Title: "Expanding the Border Fence?"

House Republican Conference Press Office
202a Cannon HOB
(202) 226-9000